TERMS AND CONDITIONS: Either Seller's written acknowledgement or Seller's full or partial performance under this purchase order, whichever occurs first, will constitute acceptance of all terms and conditions contained herein. Any acceptance of this purchaser order is limited to acceptance of the express terms of the offer set forth in this purchase order. Any proposal for additional or different terms or any attempt by Seller to vary in any degree any of the terms of this offer in Seller's acceptance or acknowledgement is hereby objected to and rejected, but such proposal shall not operate as a rejection of this offer unless such variances are in the terms of the description, quantity, price, or delivery schedule of the Goods but shall be deemed a material alteration thereof, and this offer shall be deemed accepted by the Seller without said additional or different terms. If this purchase order shall be deemed an acceptance of a prior offer by Seller, such acceptance is limited to the express terms set forth in this purchase order.
3. DISPUTE RESOLUTION:
 - (A) Except as specifically provided for in paragraphs (H) and (J) below, the parties intend to forsake litigation and resolve with finality any and all disputes arising under or related to this purchase order exclusively by the process identified in this article. This article shall remain effective in the event that a petition in bankruptcy is filed by or against a party to this purchase order, or if a party makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if any other insolvency proceeding is commenced against a party. Invocation of this paragraph shall not relieve either party of any obligation, right or duty of performance arising under or related to this purchase order.
 - (B) As a pre-condition to the enforcement of the terms in paragraphs (C) and (D) below, any and all disputes, controversies or claims arising under or relating to this purchase order or the breach, termination or invalidation thereof shall upon written notice, be first referred to a senior management representative from each of the parties who will confer in good faith to attempt to resolve the matter. The party sending the first written notice (the "initial notice") shall (1) set forth in detail all of its claims or issues in dispute and (2) designate its representative. The other party shall have 5 business days to designate its representative and add any other issues or claims for resolution not identified in the initial notice. A party's failure to make a timely demand for arbitration shall result in the forfeiture of all the claims and issues that party identified in its written notice.

(D) The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in Cincinnati, OH, and the purchase order shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the laws of the state of New York without regard to New York's choice of law provisions. All fees and expenses of the arbitration shall be shared equally by the parties. However, each party shall bear the expense of its own counsel, experts, witnesses, and preparation and presentation of proofs. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award punitive or other damages beyond the prevailing party's actual damages and shall not, in any event, make any ruling, finding, or award that does not conform to the terms and conditions of the purchase order. The arbitration award shall be in writing and shall specify the factual and legal basis for the award. The right to appeal the award shall be governed by New York law, and any such appeal shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction located in Cincinnati, OH.

(E) Either party may at any time, without inconsistency with this purchase order, seek from a court of general jurisdiction located in Cincinnati, OH, any equitable, interim or provisional relief only to avoid irreparable injury.

(F) The parties intend all statements made and documents provided or exchanged in connection with this dispute resolution process to be confidential and neither party shall disclose the existence or content of the dispute or claim, or the results of any dispute resolution process, to third parties other than outside counsel, except with the prior written consent of the other party or pursuant to legal process.

Such right to terminate shall not prejudice any existing or future rights which the Purchaser might have against the Seller including, the right to claim damages or compensation as a result or consequence of the termination of the purchase order. However, the parties may agree in writing to continue with the performance of the purchase order provided that the Insolvency Practitioner adopts the terms of the purchase order, including, but not limited to, the terms relating to negotiation, mediation and arbitration as provided for in paragraphs (B), (C) and (D) above.

The notice shall include the identity of the offeror, the date and time of the offer and the conditions of the offer. Before Seller accepts the offer, it shall give Purchaser an opportunity, within a reasonable time, to advise Seller of its objection to the offer. If, despite Purchaser's objections, the Change in Ownership or Control to the third party occurs, Purchaser has the right at its discretion to terminate this order for default under Article 7 and at no cost to Purchaser. In the event of such termination, Seller agrees to render full cooperation to Purchaser in order to minimize disruption to the Purchaser's program. Purchaser reserves the right, at its discretion, to request from Seller documentation of the completion of a criminal convictions records investigation for any employee assigned to work on Purchaser's or its customer's premises. Seller's failure to have completed a criminal convictions investigation of any of its employees in accordance with this clause shall be grounds for immediate expulsion of the Seller and its employees from Purchaser's or its customer's premises and Purchaser shall have the right to terminate all orders for default.

All inspections and tests on the premises of Seller or its supplier shall be performed in such a manner as not to unduly delay the work.

Purchaser's failure to inspect and accept or reject Goods or services shall neither relieve Seller from responsibility for such Goods or services as are not in accordance with the purchase order requirements nor impose liabilities on Purchaser therefor. The inspection or test of any item by Purchaser shall not relieve Seller from any responsibility regarding defects or other failures to meet purchase order requirements which may be discovered subsequently.

For engine components and other ancillary components, Seller shall provide and maintain quality control, inspection, and process control systems acceptable to Purchaser and its customer in accordance with Purchaser's then current supplier quality product requirements, as applicable. *"OBJECTIVE QUALITY EVIDENCE" shall mean any statement of fact pertaining to the quality of a product or service based on observations, measurements or tests which can be fully verified. Evidence must be expressed in terms of specific quality requirements or characteristics. These characteristics are identified in drawings, specifications, and other documents which describe the item, process, or procedure.
